Divestment of Shareholding

1. Any shareholder of the Company holding shares in excess of the percentage that he is entitled to hold, whether by reason of such person being declared as not fit and proper, or for any other reason, whether such reason arises out of a direction or order of the Central or State Government, Securities and Exchange Board of India or any order passed by a court, tribunal or any other statutory authority, or otherwise, shall forthwith divest his shareholding and the voting rights of such person shall stand extinguished and any corporate benefit in lieu of such holding shall be kept in abeyance / withheld by the Company.
2. The Company shall take necessary steps as it may deem fit so as to ensure that the shareholding of such person is divested forthwith upon such direction or order of a competent authority.
3. On being declared as not fit and proper person to continue to hold the shares of the Company, the Company may call upon the concerned shareholder to divest his shares forthwith. The Company shall simultaneously require the Depository and Depository Participant to note the extinguishment of the voting rights in respect of the shares of the said shareholder and freeze the beneficiary account of the said shareholder.
4. In the event the said shareholder fails or neglects to divest the shares within such time as prescribed in the communication from the Company, the said shareholders shall be deemed to have irrevocably constituted, nominated and appointed the Board of Directors of the Company as the agents for such shareholder. The Board of Directors shall cause to transfer such shares immediately to an escrow account which would be opened and operated by the Board of Directors of the Company and the Board of Directors may request respective Depository and Depository Participants to transfer the entire shareholding or the shares held in excess of the permissible limits to the escrow account opened and operated by the Board of Directors to ensure compliance with the order/guidelines/direction/norms, etc. of the Central or State Government, Securities and Exchange Board of India or any court, tribunal or any other statutory/competent authority for the disposal of such shares from such escrow account.
